Revolutionising Real Asset Ownership

Product Information

Real Asset Ownership for Everyone

This isn't just good news for those who might not otherwise be able to access certain types of assets — it also offers new opportunities for investors who want to diversify their holdings beyond traditional stocks and bonds.

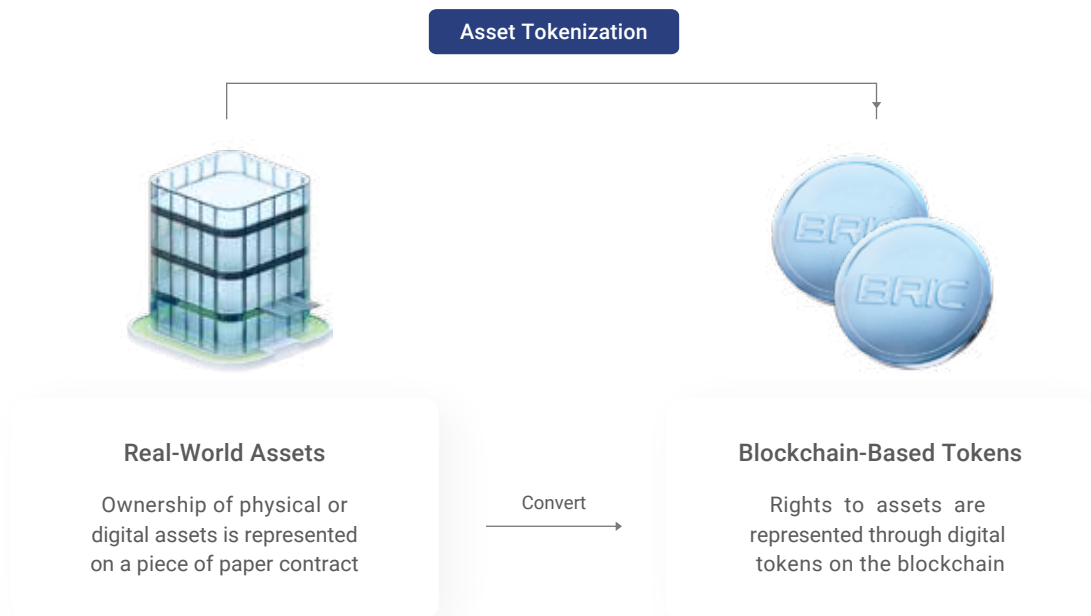

It's not just about buying gold or silver anymore: with tokenization, you can buy shares of everything — from real assets to digital content.

What is a BRIC?

- A BRIC is a digital asset that represents fractional ownership of a real-world asset.
- BRIC enables investors to purchase a fraction of an asset rather than the whole.
- BRIC holders can earn passive income from returns and appreciation of the underlying asset.

We Tokenize Real-World Assets with Blockchain

What We Do?

EBRIC is a tech start-up that uses blockchain technology to tokenize real- world assets and make them available on Likwid Asset, our web 3.0 exclusive marketplace.

The Likwid Asset Marketplace

- Offers fractions of assets like real estate and ESG projects that were previously out of reach.
- Democratizes access to real asset investment and ownership.
- Provides a better experience for everyone with its simple and seamless user experience.
- Gives investors full control to invest in assets that align with their passions and risk appetite.

EBRIC and Our Partners

EBRIC was initiated by a group of blockchain enthusiasts who have visionary aims in democratizing access to real-world assets for everyone to deliver.

Our Partners

Boustead Technology (Boustech) aims to redefine and unlock the real asset value chain potential through asset tokenization and green token concept

Likwid Asset offers a virtual blockchain-enabled market space to make rare high-value assets accessible to the mass market

Likwid 3.0 brings social commerce into action through a revolutionary app that lets everyone explore new products while closely engaging with like-minded online community

Chew Chang Min & Partners (CCM) collaborated with EBRIC to create Legalbox, a blockchain-based legal depository that provides secure storage for legal documents. As part of this partnership, CCM likely contributes legal expertise and guidance in developing the platform.
